

The quality of XM Radio so exceeds the regular AM and FM channels that I now listen to it exclusively. XM Radio should not be barred from or limited in its broadcasting of traffic and weather information for those of us who prefer this source. Let the other stations do a better job and, maybe, they can draw people like me back.